

Revenge and Oil Blend in Lawsuit

Judge Banker, Findlay, Sees in Action for Support of His Daughter Retaliating Blow from Standard.

Findlay, O., Jan. 11.—Temporary by the Standard Oil Company prosecution takes a back seat, locally. To its place in the public mind has advanced the suit recently filed against Judge G. G. Banker by Mrs. T. H. McConea, his sister, for $207, alleged to be due for boarding the judge's pretty daughter. This suit will be heard tomorrow before Justice J. C. Bittler.

"The Standard is getting after me early," said Judge Banker today in discussing the suit. "They have the reputation of pursuing a man to the grave, and it looks as if they were losing no time in my case. I am convinced that behind this action is a desire to discredit me in the public mind. I believe that McConea, who was a Standard attorney in the case tried before me, is the instigator of this."

Back of the circumstances leading up to the suit is a story of marital discord. Fourteen years ago Judge Banker and his former wife separated. She went to Salt Lake City, where she now lives, taking with her two children, and there secured a divorce. The judge, banking no contest, more than a year ago he arranged for his daughter to come and live with him. While the judge was fitting up a home Miss Banker lived with the McConea family. Early last summer, the judge having provided a home, they began housekeeping.

Soon after the trial of the now famous Standard Oil case before Judge Banker his daughter left home, returning to the McConea household, and recently the judge married again. Local gossip has feasted upon many stories as to why Miss Banker left home. Up to this time the judge has said little in his own defense.

Says Standard is "After" Him.

"There is no doubt in my mind that the Standard retained McConea simply because he is my brother-in-law," he said today. "That relationship did not influence me a particle in my ruling in the case. I know, however, that since that hearing McConea has had less use for me than ever. Had the Standard won in the suit I do not believe this action would have been filed. It is not difficult to see why it would be to the advantage of the Standard to discredit me. To make it appear that I was prejudicial to the Standard's interests might be desirable to the company."

McConea refuses such intimation indignantly. "I suppose the judge will be charging this up to the Standard," he said today, "but it is a plain case of failure to meet an agreement. It was understood that he was to pay his daughter's board, but he failed to pay. That's all there is to it. She is left without means of support. The judge should be responsible."

May Start Society Feud.

Local antagonism is keenly alive to the possibilities of the case. Out of it may grow a social feud. A jury was agreed upon and summoned Saturday. Monday half the men were out of town at the hour set for trial. None had returned today. All are prominent business men, friends of both sides. Today another jury was obtained. The case will begin tomorrow. The judge, Mrs. Banker and Mr. and Mrs. McConea will be the only witnesses.

There is no change in the grand jury situation. The jurors have gone to their homes, to return Monday. A report may be made Monday afternoon. The bribery investigation of last session was not revived at this sitting.

Horrors of Explosion Unearthed

FEAR-CRAZED ALIEN PLUNGES INTO A CRUCIBLE OF MOLTEN METAL—LEGLESS AND HEADLESS IN THE RUINS.

Survivors of Tragedy Left With Eyes Burned Out—Number of Dead May Never Be Known.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 11.—Partial investigation to ascertain the number of fatalities that occurred at the Eliza furnace of the Jones & Laughlin Steel company, Limited, Wednesday night when an accumulation of gas exploded, bursting the base of the large furnaces and showering tons of molten metal over about 40 men, was completed last night, and shows that the bodies of 12 men, horribly mutilated have been recovered, from 15 to 20 men are missing, if being generally believed their bodies were consumed by the hot metal, and ten men are in hospitals terribly burned, four of them expected to die momentarily.

It is doubtful whether the number of men killed will ever be known. From every indication 15 men were caught like rats in a trap by the fiery metal which flowed over their bodies to a depth of six feet. No trace of them, it is said, will ever be found.

Of the dead bodies now in the morgue several are minus arms, legs and heads while the others are burned and twisted beyond recognition.

The condition of the injured is pitiful. A number of men have their eyes burned out and others were so badly burned that amputation of arms and limbs was necessary.

A gruesome story was told last night by Deputy Coroner Laflin, who said one foreigner, apparently a youth, became crazed by his injuries and before he could be prevented leaped into a pot of molten metal and was incinerated.

Late yesterday afternoon a large force of workmen began searching for bodies of the missing men. Found the leg of a man embedded in a portion of the metal which they were breaking up.

Several timekeepers of the Steel company are endeavoring to prepare a list of the names of the probable victims. It is expected that it will take some time to do this. A well-known carrier whose route embraces the homes of many of the victims said that 17 men who were employed at the Eliza furnace are missing from their homes.

TRACTION MAGNATE REPORTED DYING

F. A. B. WIDENER BATTLES FOR LIFE—FAMILY AT BEESIDE OF TRACTION MAGNATE STRICKEN BY SERIOUS ILLNESS.

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—Peter A. B. Widener, traction magnate and director of many big corporations, including the United States Steel corporation, is seriously ill at his home in Elkins Park, near this city.

While Mr. Widener's condition is grave, and the members of his immediate family are near him, it is said his physician is hopeful the crisis will come through the patient safely because of his rugged constitution.

The exact nature of Mr. Widener's illness is not known, although it is given out from his private offices in the Land Title building that his present condition had its origin in an attack of rheumatism which began several months ago, from which he did not rally, and which was aggravated by a cold contracted a few days ago.

So alarming is Mr. Widener's condition that last night and today two trained nurses were in constant attendance at his bedside.

AETNA SHOWS ACTIVITY

Smoke and Ashes Issue From Crater of Volcano.

Catania, Sicily, Jan. 11.—Mount Aetna is manifesting signs of activity. Smoke and ashes are issuing from the top of the volcano, which is covered with snow, and the people of Catania are showing considerable apprehension. The spectacle is magnificent, especially at night. The men attached to the Mount Aetna observatory, which is located at an elevation of 9,000 feet, are at present at a point 3,000 feet below the observatory, held by the snow.

DEATH CALLED

AND MRS. HENRIETTA PETER PASSED TO HER REWARD—FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

After an illness of several months, the last six weeks of which confined her to her bed, Mrs. Henrietta Peter, step-mother of the well-known Peter brothers, residing on Lewis street, this city, passed away at her home, 1145 E. 11th street, at 11:45 last night, her death being due to cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Peter would have been sixty-seven years of age on the 16th of next March.

CANDY PREVENTATIVE OF WHITE PLAGUE.

London, Jan. 11.—Candy is a sure preventative of consumption. All children should be taught to eat candy. Candy factories are the finest health resorts for consumptives imaginable, as experience shows that the candy eater is proof against consumption and it is almost impossible to become a drunkard.

The physicians say that women and girls employed in candy factories are invariably robust.

YOUNG WOMAN THOUGHT WEDDING CEREMONY A JOKE AND SAID "NO!" JUST IN TIME.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 11.—While being entertained recently at the home of a prominent South Carolina family, Miss Marie Gedge, daughter of Howard Gedge, capitalist, narrowly escaped being bound for life to a man for whom she cherished no tenderer feeling than friendship.

Through ignorance of the South Carolina law, which does not make it necessary for the groom to produce a marriage license at the ceremony, Miss Gedge was made the victim of a society prank which almost robbed this city of a society belle.

Some member of the party invited the northern girl about marriage. It was remarked that there had been no wedding in the little city for months. Just to show her northern spirit it was suggested that she wed one Howard Jackson, a scion of noble family. She accepted the date and the crowd at once went to a notary's office. Here the preliminary details of the ceremony were carried out. Just as she had joined hands with her supposed lover, however, she noted the serious faces about her, and when asked if she would take the man for her lawfully wedded husband, cried "No!"

This "no" saved her from becoming a real bride when she thought it was all make-believe.

"Oh, I guess it was just instinct that saved me," she said. "But really, I tremble every time I think of it. When I marry I want to marry a real lover."

MAD DOG MANGLES A CHILD

VICTIM'S SCALP LACERATED AND EYE ALMOST TORN OUT—SENATOR ROEHMER ATTACKED BY BRUTE.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—The four-year-old daughter of George Winkelman was frightfully bitten by a mad dog in front of the residence at noon yesterday.

The child's left eye was torn almost out and her scalp and forehead lacerated.

The little girl is in a very serious condition, and was taken to the Pasteur institute at Chicago. The dog earlier in the day attacked Senator Amos Boehmer but with the aid of a club he succeeded in driving it from his premises.

LIMITING HOURS OF RAILROAD MEN.

Senator La Follette's bill limiting the number of consecutive hours a railroad employee can be on duty to sixteen in every twenty-four, with the requirement that if he works the maximum he must then have ten hours' rest, is before the senate today, and should be enacted into law.

The recent frightful loss of life from railroad accidents has accentuated the need of drastic legislation. America pays a tribute of 20,000 lives annually to the exigencies of railroading, far greater than is contributed by any other nation. A large per cent of this mortality is wanton waste, and the demand for a remedy is almost universal. There is a reprehensible custom of permitting an engineer or conductor to carry "extra" by working overtime, and the aim of the La Follette bill is to put an end to the practice. The strain of railroading is greater than in most occupations, and the man who will forego needed rest in his desire to increase his wages is playing with danger.

With the operation of the La Follette bill and a more strict enforcement of the safety appliances, it is thought that the number of accidents will be materially reduced. And a more important question cannot be considered by congress.

TEN POUND BABY.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Davis, of Eliza, are entertaining a fine ten-pound baby boy which arrived at their home yesterday.

TWO PACIFICS DIVIDED TRAFFIC

TESTIMONY GIVEN IN PROBE OF HARRIMAN LINES.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—M. C. Markham, traffic manager of the Missouri Pacific, was the first witness called before the interstate commerce commission today, when the investigation of the Harriman lines was resumed. Mr. Markham was questioned by C. A. Severance, of St. Paul, acting for the commission.

The witness was asked if the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific were prior to their consolidation, competitors for transcontinental business. He said they were. Before going to the Missouri Pacific Mr. Markham was connected with the Illinois Central, and he said that both roads were active competitors for Pacific coast business originating along the line of the Illinois Central.

"Was there any lessening of competition after the consolidation?" "It was generally understood that the competition was less."

Mr. Markham declared that, in his opinion, the Union Pacific was not a link in transcontinental transportation as contended yesterday by attorneys for Mr. Harriman, but as long as the Portland gateway is open the Pacific coast line in itself. The witness said that the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific lines, before the consolidation, were competitors for the California fruit trade and for passenger business also.

Mr. Markham was cross examined by Mr. Milburn, representing the Harriman lines, who took exception to the statement made by the witness that he considered the Union Pacific an independent Pacific coast line.

He asked the witness if the Southern Pacific, acting as an independent line, could not give to the Union Pacific a large or small amount of coastward traffic at Ogden.

"I don't know whether it could or not. There are influences at work which could prevent it."

"But the Southern Pacific as an independent line might do this?" "It might destroy itself."

Mr. Milburn then asked if the Union Pacific, via Portland to San Francisco, was to be compared to a direct line west from Ogden. The witness replied:

"The rate settles these things and rates can be made as low via Portland to San Francisco as by any other route."

Mr. Markham said that while acting as assistant traffic manager of the Illinois Central it was understood that traffic originating west of a line drawn from Cairo to the vicinity of Cleveland was to go west via Ogden. Traffic originating east of that line was to go via New Orleans. Mr. Milburn pressed the witness closely to know if such an order had ever been issued, and the witness declared that it was understood because of information derived from soliciting agents.

Mr. Milburn, by a long series of questions, brought out the statement that in all Pacific coast traffic originating on the Illinois Central, that line and the Southern Pacific must be factors, his object being to show that, however, the traffic went, the Southern Pacific was certain to be an element, and that in all cases he was constructed as a competitor of the Union Pacific.

Commissioner Lane asked the witness if he considered all transcontinental lines as competitors, to the extent that the Canadian Pacific is a competitor of the Southern Pacific. The witness replied in the affirmative.

HOME FROM DAYTON

Are the County Commissioners Who Heard the New Salary Law Cursed and Discussed and Still Are Perplexed.

County Commissioners Wright, Conrad and Johnson arrived home yesterday evening from Dayton, where they, with hundreds of other commissioners from all over the state, heard attorney General Wade H. Ellis explain the intent and meaning of the new salary law.

The explanations offered by the attorney general made several columns of his printed and the new law "cursed and discussed" at length, but Commissioner Wright is authority for the statement that there is still necessity for elucidation.

APPOINTMENT

Boss Quail Longed for May be Filled by Negro Man

Washington, D. C., Jan. 11.—Senators Foraker and Dick have heard a hint of a wily Roosevelt trick in revenge for their attitude on Brownsville. The report has reached them that the President may appoint colored men to the present vacancies in Ohio federal offices. Three collectors, Leach and McCord, of Cleveland, and Waldorf, of Toledo, are holding over without reappointment to a third term.

The Ohio senators are not sure whether the President expects to confront them with three appointments of colored men or one. There has been complaint among some colored politicians in Ohio that the rewards from the party took the form of bills Dick introduced in Washington to reduce southern representation rather than in appointments to patronage proportionate to the Republican vote they cast in Ohio.

HIS WIFE

USED FAMILY FORTUNE IN HUNTING FOR 'HEAVEN' NOW SHANABARGER WANTS A GUARDIAN.

Bowling Green, O., Jan. 11.—With all of a large fortune frittered away, save a mere pittance, his health gone and his mind impaired, Ephraim Shanabarger of Wood county, is the subject in Probate Court, of an application for a guardian.

Shanabarger's troubles began when his wife and two of his sons became the followers of a strange religion, which taught that there was a place upon the earth's surface where there would be everlasting life and which spot would be preserved when the balance of the world was destroyed by fire. The scrolls found, according to the leader of the sect, pointed out the place to be some twenty miles from Livingston, Texas, a totally barren country. There the following went, Mrs. Shanabarger providing the means of keeping the occupants of the "heaven" alive.

The Shanabarger wealth came from oil found on Ephraim's farm. The Texas institution and bad investments have wiped all but a little of it away and the application for guardian was made in order to preserve what is left. Mrs. Shanabarger died some little time ago and the remaining occupants of the "heaven" are reported to have come to the conclusion that a mistake has been made in locating the sacred spot.

DIVORCE DECREE

ASKED FOR IN A PETITION FILED YESTERDAY BY MRS. E. B. YINGLING, WHO ALLEGES NEGLECT AND FAILURE TO PROVIDE.

In the common pleas court yesterday afternoon May Yingling filed a petition for divorce from E. B. Yingling, in which she states that she was married to the defendant in March, 1897, in this city and that he has been guilty of neglect of duty for more than three years last past.

She claims he has willfully neglected and failed to provide the plaintiff with food or clothing or other necessities and that she has been compelled to live on the charity of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Yingling asks that she be granted a decree of separation from the defendant and that she be restored to her maiden name of O. May Cowles.

WAPAKONETA EDITOR LEAVES $30,000 TO HIS RELATIVES.

The will of the late Fourth district politician and editor D. A. Clark, of Wapakoneta, has been filed, showing an estate of $30,000 all of which is left to the widow, save $2,500, left to his sister, Mary Dunan, and $500 each to his three nieces and a nephew.

DEATHED MARRIAGE FACT IS CARRIED OUT.

Bos. 66, Jan. 11.—To carry out the death wishes of her late husband, Mrs. Grace Allen has married Charles E. Thompson, a well-known Boston physician. Dr. Thompson was the dead man's most intimate friend. When dying, Allen called his friend and wife to his bedside, joined their hands and besought them to care for each other. After waiting a few months they have carried out his request.

SUBSIDY

Election Wept the Wrong Way

DECATUR-PORTLAND EXTENSION OF THE PORT WAYNE & SPRINGFIELD TRACTION LINE HAS BEEN TEMPORARILY DELAYED.

It was proposed to extend the Port Wayne & Springfield traction line from Decatur to Portland, Ind., and the question of granting subsidies for that purpose was voted on Wednesday, resulting in an adverse majority. The matter is of peculiar interest to our readers because the Port Wayne & Springfield traction company is controlled by St. Marys capital. The company now has its line between Decatur and Port Wayne practically completed.

The following dispatches are self-explanatory:

Decatur, Ind., Jan. 9.—The effort of the Port Wayne & Springfield Traction company to secure subsidies to aid in building a branch of that line from this place to Portland was defeated today in the various towns and townships where special elections were held. The railway officials asked of the taxpayers about $75,000 to aid in the building of the road. The general interest in the election today resembled a contest for president of the United States.

After it was learned that the subsidy elections were lost the local officials would not give out any statement as to future plans of the company, although it is believed that they will aim to push toward Celina, O., probably via Geneva, Progress, however, will not be as rapid as if the subsidy had been voted.

Defeated in the Country.

In Decatur the local people worked hard for the subsidy and despite the opposition carried the town by 70 votes, the final count showing 486 for the proposition and 416 against. In Washington township outside of the city the vote was 36 for and 223 against the subsidy. In Monroe township 63 voted for and 144 against the subsidy.

Benning was strong against the proposed traction line won by five 88 to 253. In Ceylon the vote was 22 for and 77 against the subsidy, while in the town of Geneva, after a hot fight, the friends of the proposed traction line won by five votes, the count showing 1443 for and 1434 against the tax.

SEN. PLATT IS IMPROVING.

New York, Jan. 11.—United States Senator Thomas C. Platt, who has been suffering from a slight attack of the grip was much better today and was able to leave his rooms in the Hotel Gotham for a short drive in the park. The senator's physician said he would be fully recovered in a few days.

OLD DIRECTORS RE-ELECTED.

New York, Jan. 11.—All the old directors of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey were re-elected at a meeting of that corporation held in Jersey City today. It was announced that there will be no change in the officers of the company.

GASOLINE IS HIGHER.

Cleveland, Jan. 11.—The Standard Oil company has advanced gasoline testing 86 degrees, from 22 1/2 cents to 23 1/2 cents a gallon. Quotations on deodorized stove gasoline remain unchanged at 15 cents.

RELEASED FROM JAIL.

Mrs. Ida Bernosky, who was sent to the county jail for 30 days for adultery, was released from jail this morning.

THE PAGE OF A HUNDRED BARGAINS!

If you were to "keep track" for a while of the want ads. it would not take long for you to make a list of a hundred bargains—a hundred chances and opportunities to buy—and a hundred opportunities to sell.

There is never a "bargain" day with the want ads. There may be a day now and then when the chance or opportunity or bargain you are especially watching for does not seem to be "there," but you will not find many such days—and today is probably not one of them!

WOULD REFORM NEWSPAPERS

DISTRICT ATTORNEY JEROME HAN UNDERTAKEN A BIG CONTRACT IN THE THAW TRIAL—THE YELLOW JOURNALISTS WILL NOT HAVE EVEN A BACK SEAT.

ONLY STRAIGHT GOODS CAN BE HANDED OUT TO THE PUBLIC BY THE NEWSPAPER REPORTERS.

New York, Jan. 11.—Supreme Court Justice Greenbaum and District Attorney Jerome have decided to make an attempt to curb yellow newspaper sensationalists during the Thaw trial.

With the journalistic exaggerations and contradictions and absolute prevarications of the Chester Gillette trial at Herkimen, still fresh in mind, not to mention the Nan Patterson and Josephine Terranova cases, they have determined to prevent comment on the Thaw trial.

There is no objection to straightaway news accounts of the proceedings, but the heart-throb purveyors, those specialists in first-aid-to-the-injured heart surgeons, ex-ministers, ex-actresses, ex-defendants, phrenologists, hypnotists, astrologers, "human document analysis," beauty specialists, mind readers and almost famous folk of one kind or another will find themselves "up against it."

Jerome's Remark.

"We shall see if we can't prevent the newspapers from trying Thaw," District Attorney Jerome is said to have remarked, and he and Justice Greenbaum forthwith conferred about the matter.

There exists widespread interest in the progress and outcome of the trial. The defendant is a member of one of the richest families in Pennsylvania; his wife is a woman over whose beauty artists have waxed their tongues, and as such has enticed to the household of King Edward VI. and his victim's fame as an architect bids fair to last a century at least.

Who Will Be Barred.

These circumstances could hardly fail to arouse great public interest. Newspaper men from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh have applied for seats at the Thaw trial. These will be considered as far as possible, but individuals of the tribe who like to be referred to as "well-known writers" and an "author of some note" whose signed articles are filled with maudlin sympathy, rank distortion and lachrymose sentimentalism, will be relegated to the corridors.

"To reform the newspapers" will be one of the side issues attempted when the question of Harry Thaw's guilt or innocence of the murder of Stanford White is before a jury.

DOESN'T AGREE WITH JOHN D.

Charles M. Schwab Declares That Prosperity Has Come To Stay.

New York, Jan. 11.—Charles M. Schwab disagrees with John D. Rockefeller as to the outlook for business this year. He says prosperity is here to stay and that there is no reason why a change should come. In reference to the steel business he said:

"I believe there will be periods of depression. But to my mind they will be short and the grand average of output must always be increasing. Factories everywhere are increasing their capacity. I do not agree with those who think manufacturers are extending their plants too much. Such increase in capacity will all be needed."

GRAY AT SIX, OLD AGE KILLS CHILD OF ELEVEN.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 11.—A remarkable case of old age in a child came to notice in the death of a patient at the city hospital.

Doctors say the patient, James Anderson, whose parents live at Northome, Minn., and who died at the age of 11 years and 2 months, was at least 60 years of age at the time of his birth, so far as the condition of vital organs determining the age of man.

When the child was six years old his hair began to fall, and he walked with the deliberation of a person well advanced in years.

As a very young child he was exceptionally bright, but his mental faculties have been gradually failing for two years, so that he was in his dotage during the past few months.

THREW STONES

WHILE LIVING IN GLASS HOUSE AND MRS. ANNA KLETT AND WILLIAM BLACK ARE HELD TO THE PROBATE COURT.

That "people who live in glass houses should pull down the blinds" or refrain from throwing stones was abundantly exemplified in Mayora's court this morning when Anna Klett and William Black were bound over to the probate court under bonds of fifty dollars each on a charge of unlawful cohabitation.

The affidavit upon which Black and the Klett girl were arrested was sworn to by Mrs. Ida Bernosky, who is now serving a sentence of thirty days in jail for adultery. When Mrs. Bernosky was found guilty, Miss Klett was the prosecuting witness. Revenge is sweet, and when two women who have been chummy and told each other their secrets fall out there's liable to be something doing.

Mrs. Bernosky told of having seen Black many, many times in the rooms of Miss Klett, in the Crossley block and that Miss Klett had entertained him in a costume some-thing like that it is supposed Eve wore—or failed to wear—previous to taking a nibble at the apple.

She also testified that Miss Klett told her Black was paying her room-rent and buying her clothes.

Miss Klett testified that she supported herself partly by letting rooms and partly with money sent from Buffalo to her brother, who, with her father, is now located there the latter being employed as a section boss.

Miss Klett stoutly denied that she earned a living in an improper manner and was very much exasperated when City Solicitor Mastman introduced a doctor's certificate dated no further back than Tuesday, which pronounced her free from all venereal diseases, and which she had permitted to fall into the hand of the prosecution. She was held to the probate court, as stated above.

Black waived examination and was also bound over.

Married In Russia

BUT WANTS AN AMERICAN DIVORCE—CHANCEAGNY LAMER IS THE DEFENDANT IN SUIT FILED THIS MORNING.

A petition was filed in the common pleas court this morning by Benjamin Lamer, who asks for a legal separation from Chanceagny Lamer.

Benjamin asserts that he and Chanceagny were married at Proza, Russia, and that once Chanceagny, Rachel, aged four and one-half years, is the result of the union. He alleges that his wife has been untrue to her marital vows and that she is an unfit person to have the care of their child, whose custody he asks the court to award him. Rachel and Richie are his attorneys.

PASSED ON BUCKEYE TAX CASE

Tax Inquisitor Wrong, Auditor Erred in Bulk Increase.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—The state board of revision Thursday passed upon the case of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, a Standard Oil property, relative to the addition of $110,000 taxes made by a tax inquisitor in Hancock county. The main question is left to the courts of Hancock county, where a case involving the same question is pending.

The board holds that the commissioners of Hancock county had not authority to employ a tax inquisitor in this case, and that the auditor erred in making a bulk increase in tax valuation.

SIX MONTHS

IN THE WORKHOUSE AND A FINE OF FIFTY DOLLARS

Was Sentence Given Lewis H. Shuler in the Police Court This Morning--Insulted Young Girls.

Lewis H. Shuler, a painter, married living at 329 Holmes avenue, got a dose in the mayor's court this morning that will hold him for a well.

Shuler was arrested shortly after noon yesterday by Detective Mont Irwin of the Pennsylvania railway company, who witnessed the behavior to which he this morning pleaded guilty.

Shuler was found in an alley near Pierce street, between Market and Spring streets, insulting young girls who passed on their way to school. He was observed by a lady living in the neighborhood, who notified Detective Irwin, who also lives in the vicinity and who was able to observe the actions of the man from the window of his own home.

Slipping around to the rear Detective Irwin was upon the offender before he could escape and handcuffing him, marched him to the Central police station.

In the meantime, however, some of the school girls had spread the alarm and a crowd had begun to gather. To the fact that most of the crowd were women Shuler probably owes his escape from summary punishment.

Knowing that the evidence against him was overwhelming, Shuler pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and serve a term of six months in the workhouse.

READY FOR HIM

For the construction of the new Public Library--Plans Have Been Completed for a Splendid Building.

Messrs. Dawson and McLaughlin architects for the public library board have been authorized to receive bids for the construction of the new thirty thousand dollar edifice to be built on the northwest corner of West Market and McDonald street. It is intended to award the contract as soon as possible and to have the actual work of construction under way as soon as thereafter as may be found practicable.

The new library building is to be of stone, brick and terra-cotta, and about seventy by seventy feet in general dimensions, fronting on west Market street. The lot has streets on two sides and an alley on the third side, so that there will be ample free space, affording unobstructed view of the structure as a piece of architecture. The library will occupy the main floor with vestibule, delivery room, children's and adults' reading rooms, reference and librarian's rooms and space for the book stacks. The capacity of the library is to be some 30,000 volumes, filling the ideal provision of one book per capita. The high basement will contain a lecture room, seating one hundred and eighty, a trustees' room, room for women's club purposes, toilet accommodations, work room and space for the heating apparatus.

The delivery desk is to be so located that the person in charge will have a full view of the entire library floor, making administration easy. The delivery room will have the tile flooring, marble wainscot, columns, and plaster and is surmounted by a dome, which floods it with light. The lighting both natural and artificial throughout the building will be liberal as becomes a place of reading and research. The woodwork and furniture will be of substantial character.

The staff will consist of the librarian and one assistant for the present. Miss Grace Chapman, who was recently elected to the chief position, will arrive February first, to assume her duties. Miss Martha Gamble will remain as assistant.

YOUNG CASE CONTINUED

TO THE NEXT TERM OF COURT—(COUNSEL FOR DEFENSE ON-LY) TO HEARING TODAY.

FRUSTRATED BY A NEW MOTION FIXED AS THE DATE FOR ABOUT MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

The motion for a new trial in the Young case was argued today in the court. The court was divided 3-3.
When court was called at 2:45 with Judge Mathers on the bench.
Mr. Ridgway, of the counsel for the defense, objected to the case being passed upon, giving as the sole reason that "it would be contrary to the law of the land."

Prosecuting Attorney Welby said the only grounds imaginable for such an objection was that the right to hold an adjournment session had been questioned and that rather than take the chance of proceeding illegally the state would consent to the case being set for January 28 or 29.

the first or second day of the next term.

Judge Mathers said that he was clear in the opinion that the court had full jurisdiction under the circumstances. The statute providing that an adjournment session may be held in order to close up unfinished business, the only requirement to make it legal being the entry on the order upon the journal during the current term. This order was duly entered during the last term, although the court said he did not have this particular matter in mind at the time.

However, in the face of the objection of the defense and in the absence of any resistance upon the part of the prosecution he would set the hearing for some day during the next term.

It was finally agreed that the arguments on the motion will be heard on Friday, February 2. The bond of the defendant was fixed at fifteen hundred dollars.

END OF SEASON FACTORY SALE

The Wholesale Stock at Retail at The End of Season.
Immense Season's Clearance of Character Clothing, Hats and Furnishings.
Begins Tomorrow, Saturday, January 12th.

The factory has cleared out all fall and winter goods, to make room for new spring and summer goods. You all know what this means. It means you'll have a chance
--beginning tomorrow, Saturday morning at 7:30 o'clock--to buy our good clothes, hats and furnishings at very unusual prices.
There's no novelty about it, nothing sensational about it. It's simply our way of averting the necessity of carrying goods from one season into the next--all winter garments have been gathered into groups for speedy selling.
Only a few offerings can be quoted in this space.
You'll find hundreds more in the store.
